FORWARD FROM THE CHIEF

To the citizens, businesses and guests of Chatham Borough:

On behalf of the men and women of the Chatham Borough Police Department, I am pleased to present the department’s 2015 annual report. The annual report provides an overview of the many activities and aspects of department operations throughout the year.

This report provides you an understanding of the activities and services provided by our agency. As Chief of the Chatham Borough Police Department, I am committed to ensuring that those we serve are provided safety, security and outstanding customer service. We continue to maintain a close connection with the community through such programs as the sergeant zone assignment, downtown business district foot patrol, routine school visitations as well as traffic safety, parking enforcement and special enforcement details.

We also continue to modernize our equipment and update procedures to keep current with technology and ever changing trends in criminal activity. Our department has established partnerships with many area law enforcement agencies so that together we create a strong force against crime.

The Chatham Borough Police Department is a dedicated and professional organization and we will continue to work hard to provide excellent customer service and quality of life to citizens, businesses and guests of Chatham Borough. To that end, during 2015, the department underwent a rigorous review of our policies and practices by the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police Accreditation Program assessors. And proudly, I am pleased to announce that we were recognized for excellence in policing standards by being awarded the distinction of being recognized as an accredited police agency. That particular distinction means that the Chatham Borough Police Department has been confirmed as operating under the best practices in law enforcement in New Jersey.

SECTION FIVE

2015 GOALS

AND

ACHIEVEMENTS
GOALS AND ACHIEVEMENTS FOR 2015

Goal: Institutionalize new and updated police department policies and procedures implemented as part of the New Jersey State Chiefs of Police Association Accreditation Program

Achievement: During 2015, we continued to update our policies and procedures to coincide with the performance standards established under the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police Law Enforcement Accreditation Program. We continued to work toward proving our compliance with the standards by creating proof files in coordination with our program manager from the Rodgers Group, LLC. for review by the assessors during our anticipated spring of 2015 on-site assessment. On June 28th-29th we were subject to an on-site assessment of our accreditation files. Upon completion of the assessment, the assessors referred our final assessment report to the NJSACP Accreditation Commission for review. On October 8th, 2015, the Chatham Borough Police Department appeared before the accreditation commission at their scheduled hearing at which time they unanimously bestowed accredited status upon Chatham Borough Police Department.

Goal: Continue to improve and adapt an in-house supervisory training program for Sergeants and O.I.C.’s

Achievement: To date, this goal continues to be a work in progress. We as a senior staff, have continued to utilize the Power DMS directives management and training module to improve policy distribution and training for the entire police department. Some of the training modules have focused on some of the more critical areas of police supervision to include harassment in the workplace and ethics as well as several topics mandated by the NJ Attorney General and the Morris County Prosecutor’s Office. In addition, during December 2015, Dr. Joseph Devine the former Chief of Police of the Rockaway Township Police Department, former Chief of Detectives at the Morris County Prosecutor’s Office and associate professor at Fairleigh Dickinson University was asked to conduct a block of training for all supervisors holding the rank of sergeant and above. Dr. Devine who teaches supervision and leadership in the Masters of Administrative Science program at Fairleigh Dickinson University generously agreed and spoke at length on the issues critical to contemporary police supervision. As we progress into the New Year we will be recruiting Dr. Devine to help expand on our current supervision and leadership training.

Goal: Conduct a Borough wide speed analysis on all Borough thoroughfares, broken down by police zones.

Achievement: This goal has been actively undertaken in 2015 and remains a work in progress moving forward. The Police Department continues to deploy and track data capturing devices throughout the Borough to secure empirical traffic data. In addition, the Traffic Safety Unit is maintaining traffic data for future review, analysis and any other action warranted by the data results. The Traffic Safety Unit continues to establish and execute education and enforcement campaigns in response to the traffic data analysis. In addition, the Chatham Borough Police Department has and continues to work with neighboring law enforcement agencies to address traffic issues identified on adjoining roadways.
Goal: Pursue completion of overnight parking reform through the Overnight Parking Committee

Achievement: During 2015, we were unsuccessful in coming to a resolution on this issue even though it was approached during various traffic and parking meetings. An official meeting of the Overnight Parking Committee was not able to be convened to fully address this matter therefore, the matter was advanced to the 2016 goals and objectives and it is anticipated that the Long Range Traffic and Pedestrian Safety Committee will review the matter and recommend options for resolve to the Mayor and Council for consideration.

Goal: Improve and enhance the police department’s records destruction and file maintenance process.

Achievement: During 2015, the Chatham Borough Police Department utilized the talents of experienced civilian personnel to review and evaluate the current status of department maintained files in accordance with the Division of Archives and Records Management records destruction schedule. Those records that met the established criteria were scheduled for destruction while the proper documentation was completed in order to petition the state for permission to destroy the records in accordance with the guidelines. Once we received permission from the Division of Archives and Records Management, we worked with the Borough Clerk to ensure proper destruction of the approved documents. Our objective is to continue an effective annual maintenance of records destruction and file maintenance process.

The noted increase of 7.3% in calls for service during 2015 is attributed to an increase in Public Service and Administrative type calls. This upsurge in Public Service calls was due to a significant focus on building and facility checks throughout the noted times of heightened awareness in 2015 due to increased terrorism alerts, holiday initiatives and maintenance of overall public security and safety.

Part I offenses that have not been determined to be false or unfounded are forwarded to the F.B.I. for computation in the community's crime rate. These offenses are used to determine a community's crime rate based upon the number of crimes reported per 1,000 residents. There was a 10.26% decrease in the actual Part I offenses in 2015.
SECTION EIGHT
TRAFFIC ENFORCEMENT ANALYSIS
Traffic enforcement is the most recognizable and universal police function. Marked police cars are easy to see and many drivers have been stopped for a traffic violation. Because of the punitive consequences attached to traffic enforcement, many do not have an appreciation for the positive benefits. Additionally, “myths” can result from misconceptions about the goals and motivations of traffic enforcement.

When you see a car pulled over, remember that the law enforcement officer may be doing more than writing a traffic citation. The officer may be apprehending a wanted person, or removing weapons and drugs from your community. Traffic enforcement can, and does, contribute to the quality of life in your community. Communities realize the benefits of traffic enforcement and highway safety efforts: roads and neighborhoods will be safer and police agencies will have more time to effectively police their communities. The Chatham Borough Police Department continues to increase traffic enforcement efforts to ensure public safety.

SECTIO! TEN

Chatham Borough Police Department
“Excellence through accreditation”

Accreditation is a progress and time-proven method of assisting law enforcement agencies to calculate and improve their overall performance. The foundation of Accreditation lies in the adoption of standards containing a clear statement of professional objectives. Agencies who participated in the accreditation process conduct a thorough self-analysis to determine how existing operations can be adapted to meet the accreditation standards and objectives. When the procedures are in place, a team of trained, independent assessors verifies that the applicable standards have been successfully implemented.

Accredited status represents a significant professional achievement. Accreditation acknowledges the implementation of policies and procedures that are conceptually sound, operationally effective and represent best practices.

The New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police has pursued the concept and development of a voluntary statewide law enforcement accreditation program for New Jersey which has resulted in the formation of the NJSACOP Law Enforcement Accreditation Commission, consisting of commissioners with the overall responsibility of adoption of program standards, as well as review of all assessment reports and approval of all recommendations for the granting of accredited status of applicant agencies.

The attitudes, training and actions of personnel of New Jersey's law enforcement agencies best reflect compliance with the standards contained in this program. Policy and procedure based on Accreditation will not insure mistake-free policing or a crime-free environment for citizens. Nor will it ensure an absence of litigation against law enforcement agencies and executives. However, comprehensive and effective leadership through professionally based policy development is directly influenced by a law enforcement program that is thorough, complete, and obtainable, and based on standards that reflect professional best practices.

In an effort to exhibit our commitment to professionalism and best practices in law enforcement to our community, the Chatham Borough Police Department voluntarily pursued accreditation through the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police. After an arduous self-analysis, we endeavored further into the process and tackled the standards progressively. After a tenuous mock assessment, we underwent a two day official on-site agency assessment. Upon completion of the assessment, we were scheduled to appear before the board of accreditation commissioners at their commission hearing on October 8, 2015, to testify to the contents of the final on-site assessment report.

Upon completion of our testimony, the board of accreditation commissioners unanimously bestowed accredited status on the Chatham Borough Police Department. The awarding of accredited status represents confirmation of compliance with standards and best practices in policing. This is an award that all members of the Chatham Borough Police Department were honored to receive for their hard work and dedication to the process and the overall product that we provide to the community “Excellence in police service through accreditation.”

Philip J. Crosson, Jr.
