Water Line Information

What you need to know

The water line buried underground on your property belongs to you. Your water company is not responsible for the cost of repairs. Replacing this line may cost thousands of dollars in unforeseen expenses.

Water lines deteriorate over time. Many factors contribute to line breakdowns – things such as age, soil condition, ground shifting and corrosion to name a few. Because the line is buried underground it makes a failure almost impossible to predict.

This letter provides eligible homeowners with benefit information to help protect them from costly water service line repairs. For as little as $5.49 a month, Exterior Water Service Line Coverage from HomeServe is available for your property at

Coverage Benefit Review:

Annual Benefit Amount	Unlimited for covered repairs
Service Call Benefit	Unlimited for covered repairs
Deductible	$0.00 for plan members
